Mrs. Ewing:

I wish you would please read the above to your girls at the evening prayer formation and give them a talk on the importance of staying away from unfavorable surroundings until they develop sufficient strength of character to stand by and follow their teachings. There was not a more promising girl at Carlisle last year than Margaret. She frequently assured me of her ambition to be an example of worthy imitation and a force for the up-lift of her people. She went home with the understanding that she would return to Carlisle in June and then go to one of the city hospitals and complete her course in nursing. I am grieved and disappointed at the way she has turned out. She frequently assured me that she was going to prove that the Crow Indians, who are proverbially a bad lot, were not all bad or worthless. You can see how she has yielded to the very first temptation. This should be an example to the other girls.

Mr. Evan W. Estep,
Superintendent, The Crow Agency,
Crow Agency, Mont.

Dear Mr. Estep:

The latter part of last week it was requested by the authorities at the Todd Hospital in Carlisle that Margaret Pickett be recalled to this School. There seems to have been some misunderstanding of minor importance between Margaret and other attendants at the Hospital.

When I saw Margaret at my office she again requested leave to return home, and as it is her intention to return east in the summer to continue with her training as a nurse I concluded there would be more likelihood of her carrying out her plans if allowed to go home now instead of at the close of school. Accordingly it has been arranged to have her leave here this evening. Transportation for her passage to Crow Agency will be provided for her use.

Hoping that this action will prove to be for Margaret's best interests and that you can find something for her to do during the time she intends to remain at her home, I am,

Dear friend:-

Your letter to Mr. Lipps comes to me in his absence. I am sure he would be glad to know that you are getting along nicely now. I know that he is interested in you and wants you to get along well. He had hoped that you would continue your work as a nurse but now that you are married and have your home duties, he would want you to do your duty there. I am very sorry to learn of the death of your little baby. I understand how you must feel in the loss of your first baby and sympathize with you.

Mr. Lipps has been in Washington with the boys and girls from this school who have been there for several days. The Indian band had given several concerts and some of our girls gave an Indian play. On the day of the Inauguration, 250 of the boys took part in the parade. So you see Carlisle has been well represented in Washington this week. We expect them all back either today or tomorrow.

I would write a few lines while I have the chance.

I am getting along very nicely and hope
every body there at Carlisle
are the same.

We are having another spell of cold weather
here but I think it will soon change.

There has been a delegation

it from the Crow reservation to Washington D. C. on tribal affairs, which was quite an excitement here for awhile and at present are waiting for the hearings to come.

Mr. Lipps, this I think is my first letter to Carlisle and it happens to be my luck to bring you ~~some~~ sad news. Our home was filled with grief over the death of our dear little baby girl the 20th of January. she was 28 days old when she died, she took pneumonia. Mr. Lipps I think that days was the saddest days ~~in~~ my life.

I think this is all I shall write for this time, hoping to hear from you as I am always glad to hear from Carlisle.

Wishing my friends

My dear Madam:

Since the time of the receipt here of your letter of March the 24th, Margaret Pickett has been seen at this office in regard to her going home for the summer months to assist you with your work. Although Margaret is anxious to continue with her work here she desires to do whatever she can to be of assistance to you, and so I would thank you to inform me just when you would prefer to have her come if the arrangements necessary to effect her leaving can be made.

In this connection I beg leave to add that your Superintendent's approval should be secured before you write me again, for then his recommendation in the premises can also be given consideration.

Margaret has funds to her credit in our school bank from which her transportation can be paid, but in view of the fact that you have requested her return it

Dear Sir:

These few lines I am writing you are to let you know that I am in great need of my daughter's help here at home. I am Margaret Pickett's aunt and guardian. I call her my daughter as she is my only girl niece. My husband died last month and I have not been well since then after all my hardships and sorrow.

My oldest children being all boys and having two small children to take care of it is pretty hard on me. The house work and cooking taking it all together I am in great need of Maggie's help so will you please consider the matter and talk to Maggie about it and see if it will be possible for her to come home? I am anxious that Maggie, ^{should} learn all she can and stay there as long as she likes but

HM. I have received your letter of April the 14th, and as it had been reported to me before the receipt of your letter that you were married in a blanket and moccasins I would be pleased to hear from you direct whether there is not some misunderstanding somewhere.

When you left here you seemed to be sincere in your desire to continue the same high ideals that made you one of the promising girls Carlisle has had enrolled. If you were married in the costume which it is reported you wore it was so prompt a dropping of your ideals that I cannot understand at all.

You have my best wishes and I feel confident that Carlisle's training cannot have been in vain in your case.

The request that your money be sent to you has been noted, but it will have to be treated as a transfer of funds and the entire amount is being sent to Superintendent

Sir:

I am today in receipt of copy of letter addressed by you to "Mrs. Little Daylight, of Hardin, in regard to return of Margaret Pickett to the Reservation to help her with her work.

I am inclined to think there is a sinister purpose back of the scheme to get Maggie to come to them- and it is safe to say that if she comes home at all she will not return to Carlisle. Maggie has been doing well, I believe, and I would be very sorry to have her come here and go back to the old Indian life,. I think she should stay with you until she graduates, and by that time she will probably be qualified for something better than the camp. She has no people here, that is, no relatives. Her father and mother are dead and her brothers have all left the Reservation.

Very sincerely,

Margaret:

Superintendent Scott has just advised me that it would be better for you to remain here in school until you have completed sufficient work to qualify you to go to work for yourself. He has pointed out that there is nothing for you to do at home; that you can render but little assistance and that your brothers have left the Reservation.

Under the circumstances it will be well for you to plan not to go home this summer, and to continue with such work as you have decided to complete before you leave here.

Mr. Evan W. Estep, Supt.,
U. S. Indian Agency,
Crow Agency, Mont.

My dear Mr. Estep:

Your announcement of the marriage of Margaret Pickett comes as a distinct surprise and shock. There were few more promising girls at Carlisle than Margaret. She frequently came into my office and talked to me about her plans for the future and of her desire to prove to the world that a Crow

Indian could make good. When she left here it was with the distinct understanding that she would go home and visit an old aunt whom she wanted very much to see, and return in a few days to Carlisle, and I had planned to arrange for her going to Philadelphia and enter one of the large hospitals and complete her course in nursing. She appeared so ambitious and so much in earnest that I never once doubted her keeping her word, and as you may imagine I am very much disappointed in what she has done. You must have a very discouraging proposition there at Crow. I sympathize with you.

Very respectfully,

OHL:SR

Supervisor in Charge.

My dear Mr. Tippo:-

Am sending you new item for the Arrow. Cannot add very much to it. There is certainly ample room for her to do some of her "up. lift." work on her husband, who is a long-haired worthless piece of humanity.
However, Margaret made a quick logarithm from Carlisle teachings and was married in a blouselet, silk handkerchief head-dress and moccasins. I believe she hit bottom the quickest of any returned student I ever

she had just as well go the limit and have it

As a result of the

and the following information was obtained from the records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, at Washington, D. C., on March 16, 1918, that the following persons were living on the Crow Agency, Montana, on March 16, 1918, and were the legal owners of the land described in the foregoing list:

there might be danger of her not being in an environment which would be conducive to progress.

Mr. Evan W. Estep,

Crow Agency, Mont.

My dear Sir:

Since writing you on January the 9th and before your favor of January the 13th came to me I had another talk with Margaret Pickett at my office. When I pointed out again to her the advantage of continuing with her training she finally consented to remain here longer than until June but it is yet her desire that you keep her in mind when a suitable vacancy occurs to which she could be appointed.

I would not recommend Margaret for a position at your Agency where she would have to go out to work among the Crow Indians by herself. However, if there should be an opportunity to get her a place in the Hospital, where she would be working with older and more experienced employees, her training should make her a useful worker.

I am yet in hopes that Margaret can be persuaded to continue with her course in nursing until she graduates. She could then go anywhere and make a start in her profession, and would not have to depend on a position where there might be danger of her not being in an environment which would be conducive to progress.

Every effort will be put forth here to make the young lady see the importance of continuing with her training.

to me a month or so ago, telling of her desire to go back to the Reservation and work for the uplift of her people. I thought this would be a very unwise thing for her to do, and I had written to her a few days ago to that effect. It has been my experience that young women come back to the reservation with the same noble ideals and intentions of uplifting the tribe, but they are instead dragged back almost to the level of the average Indian.

I advised her to go into a white community, or among a tribe to which she was very related, believing that she would be able to accomplish more with infinitely less risk to herself. I also recommended that she take the matter over fully and frankly with you, which I trust she will do.

Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Dear sir:-

I have your letter of January 9, concerning Margaret Pickett, whose period of enrollment will terminate at the end of the present school year.

This young woman wrote to me a month or so ago, telling of her desire to come back to the Reservation and work for the uplift of her people. I think that this would be a very unwise thing for her to do, and had a letter written to her a few days ago to that effect. It has been my experience that young women come back to the reservation with the highest possible ideals and intentions of uplifting the Tribe, but they are instead dragged back almost to the level of the old, uneducated blanket Indians.

I advised her to go into a white community, or among a tribe to which she is in no way related, believing that she would be able to accomplish more and with infinitely less risk to herself. I also recommended that she talk the matter over fully and frankly with you, which I trust she will do.

Very truly yours,

Evan W. Estep

Superintendent.

Dear Supt.,

Am writing to you to let you know I am getting along very nicely in school,
I like the school very well,
and also like my home
too. I got 82.5 in my average, this is my first year in the 7th grade. My teacher said I was improving very fast. I got a very nice report.

We are going to have our class meeting, Tuesday.
I'm on the committee; ~~and~~^{and} we are going to have a mock trial, and I am one of jurors, I think its going to be very interesting, as its some thing they have never had before.

I like to go to school all day. I have never went to school all day before.

It has been raining
for nearly two days now.

Thursday after-noon, we did not have any school, because it was raining too hard.

I was sorry to hear of Miss Isaith's going away.

Friday evenings is one of my most pleasant evenings because, I get the arrow, and I enjoy my self reading the school news.

I must say Good-bye for its getting late. Best wishes (to all.) Yours Sincerely, Margaret Pickett.

Dear Sir:-

Your communication
in regard to Margaret Pickett, was handed to me by our head
nurse Miss Kruger.

We would like you to recall Margaret

as soon as you can do so.

Very truly,

(Mrs) H. B. Wile

In conversation with Mrs. Wile, who is the chairman of the Board of Managers of the Todd Hospital, I found out that Margaret Pickett had not been doing as well as they knew she could do, for several weeks. She was not on good terms with the head-nurse, Miss ~~K~~ Kruger and the other nurse. She wrote a threatening letter to the other nurse. She also received boys from the school as visitors.

Margaret acknowledged to me that she did not get along with the other nurses. She said she did make the "threat" but it was only that she was going to report this nurse to Head Nurse. She meant to do her no harm.

She also acknowledged that she did receive boys but it was only as any lady would receive calls.

Mr. Evan W. Estep,

Superintendent, The Crow Agency,
Crow Agency, Mont.

My dear Sir:

Margaret Pickett, who is enrolled here from the Agency under your jurisdiction and whose period of enrolment will terminate at the close of school in June of this year, has come to me with a request that I find out from you whether there is any possibility of her being appointed soon to a position at the Crow Agency.

It is Margaret's desire to do something for the people at her home in a capacity similar to that of Field Matron. She is rather young to take up such important work except so far as her training as a nurse has fitted her, but she is competent, energetic and willing. She had eight months of experience in our School Hospital as a student nurse prior to May of last year. Since that time she has taken the course in Nurses' Training at the Todd Hospital in Carlisle, where she has been required to do her share of the regular nurses' work. She is to continue with her work at the Todd Hospital until work can be secured for her at her home or until the close of this school year.

Mr. Evan W. Estep, Superintendent.

I would thank you to let me hear from you in regard to the matter so that I can advise Margaret and can co-operate with her further to prepare her for the work she is planning to do.

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.
