I have nothing of much interest connected with my life, only that I have been deserted by my husband and have the care of two small boys one, one year old and the other four months. The only trouble between us was that my husband's father tried to get my land away from me, and because he couldn't do it they did every thing to part us and finally succeeded in doing so. I would like you to send me something of this school I hope to some day be a visitor at your school, I liked it very much while there and being only thirteen years of age was like all children glad to get back to father and mother. Your school certainly has received highly recommendations from us myself and sisters. I have no photo of myself at present but will send one later on.
