Mr M. Friedman

Dear Sir,

I received your kind and welcome letter some time ago and was indeed glad to hear from dear old Carlisle once again. We are all well and getting along fine, are having a very mild winter so far, have had very little snow.

I enjoy reading the little Arrow very much and look forward to its coming every week, and when reading it over and over I often wish I were back again.

Mr Friedman if you ever come out to the far West why come over to little Lopez Island and see ~~us~~, will be glad to see some one from dear old Carlisle. I must tell you that ~~our~~ Post Office has changed names.

I will close with best wishes to all of my dear friends at Barlisle.

Yours resp;

Mrs Emma M Thompson
