Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Mr. Barwithen has a good home for the boys and no doubt is good to them in all ways. He, however, seems a little close and don't want to pay enough. (?)

John seemed to be very much displeased with his wages when I visited him and after some urging Mr. Barwithen agreed to increase his wages from 8 to 10 dollars per month.

John may decide to remain out during the winter but will want a transfer.

June 20, 1911

D. H. Dickey
Agent.

I feel that I may be wrong in my first judgment in regards to Mr. Barwithen being close. I find since that John can be a good boy, and should earn at least $5.00, but he is unstable and cannot always be relied upon. He is generally a good boy.
