Ida Baker
Winnebago, Neb.
Dear friend:-

Not long ago, I received a report from the Indian Agent about all the graduates and returned students from this school. Among these was your report. I thought that possibly a word from a friend of the school at Carlisle which you once attended might be an encouragement to you.

You do not know me personally and I do not know you but I do know that you were once a pupil of the school of which I am now superintendent and since I have an interest in all its ex-students, I have an interest in you. I want you to remember what you were taught here and to try to live up to those teachings. If you fall once in a while, do not give up for all time. Get up on your feet again and make another trial to walk ahead. This is the only way to grow.

I trust I may hear from you sometime.

With best wishes, I am

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
