Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Mr. McCoy claims Octave is disobedient and comes to town too much at night. Octave claims they are kind to him and admits he does not obey well.

The environment is not as good as it might be and I believe it best to exchange this boy for some other one and await results.

His room is a very poor one, cold and poorly kept but they claim it is on account of his wetting the bed that they don't keep him in the main building.

Outside appearances are better about this home than actual conditions are within it. Never having visited this home but once, I am unable to give any fixed opinion. Conditions at this time do not appeal to me as good.

Signed, D.H. Dickey.
