JUL 20 1940

Dear Mr. Ellerman:

We have received your letter of July 16, asking for the present address of George Day, who attended Carlisle and spent some time on a farm adjoining one then owned by your father, in Alinda, Pennsylvania.

The Carlisle file for George Day contains no recent correspondence from him. The record shows that he was a full blood Shawnee Indian, and we are therefore referring a copy of this letter to our Superintendent at Shawnee, Oklahoma, asking him to send you the address of, or any information he may have about Mr. Day's present whereabouts.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd) Paul L. FICKINGER

Gentlemen:

During the early part of the present century I met an Indian by the name of George Day. At the time he was attending The Carlisle Indian School, Carlisle, Penna.

Can your department give me any information as to his present address?

If my memory serves me well, he was from Oklahoma.

He spent some time on a farm adjoining the one then owned by my father, August Ellerman, at Alinda (Present Post Office Landisburg) Penna.

I will greatly appreciate any information you may be able to give me.

Very truly yours,

D.L. Ellerman
