Mrs. Friedman

Carlisle Pa.

Dear friend:— Your letter was recd. I was very glad to receive your letter, it made me think of old Carlisle.

I am working on a sheep ranch and is in good health. In another year
I will be able to return to Carlisle
and finish my term.

I am very sorry that I ever left
Carlisle, But it was for my own good.

I have gained very much by it. My strength is coming back to me. I can see now that Carlisle was in to teach me all that I could learn.

I am ~~now~~ writing to Heald's Business College at San Francisco for a catalogue of their school. I am interested in this college and if you can get enough money I will finish my course there.

I am trying awful hard to save my money but it seems to get away. I will go to town (C. weeks) soon to have my teeth attended to. It will cost from ~~$50.00~~ ^{$}75.00 dollars to have them fixed up proper

The weather has been very cold here. The snow is three feet deep in some places.

I wish to send congratulations to Mr. Warner and the foot ball boys for their splendid work. I remain

Yours truly
George Hancock
