Dear Sir,

Mr Andrew Jackson and Mr Victor Seneca, two former Carlisle students have gone in partnership in the poultry business.
Mr Seneca who recently left Carlisle is doing splendidly and is a sober young man who understands his business quite thoroughly. Mr Jackson is also managing a farm besides the new business he has now undertaken.

As we people here are always interested in our young men on the reservation we can't help but hope and wish these two young men the best of success, hoping you will put this in print so as to encourage more of our young men. I remain

Respectfully,
An interested friend,

Dear friend:

I have your letter giving me the name of an Indian boy whom you think will make a desirable pupil for us. As you did not give me the boys post office address, I am taking the liberty of sending you an application blank for him to fill out and return to me.

Will you please assist him in making this out? Thanking you for your continued interest in the school.

Very truly yours,

Superintendent.
