Mr. John Francis Jr.

Dear Sir,

I want to thank you very much, for your very interesting and kind letter of February 27.

We have already been informed of the War risk Insurance in fact I have already taken out a ten thousand dollar ($0,000) policy, which cost me six dollar and forty cents ($6.40) a month. I think it a very good idea, and took out the largest policy that could be taken out, as soon as I heard of it.

Mr. Francis there is an-another thing, I want to thank you for, that is sending me the "Arrow" every month, it sure is interesting and takes me back to my school days.

I'll close now with many thanks I am,

Sincerely

John Sawatis

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

I took report from John after I had seen patron and he don't seem certain as to the time he come to live here.

John is well pleased with his home and also he is well liked by his patron. However, his time is out in June and he wishes to go home.

Mr. W. S. Naima wishes a small boy in his place and also a large boy to do farm work. He would rather have a good trusty boy at $7 or $20 per month than one at less wages who he could not trust.

If a trusty boy can't be sent none is wanted as he can't be with him to show him what to do.

Special attention is desired.
