Brown Valley, Minn.

July 9, 1912,

Friend:

I think some time in the future I would like to have you find me a position. A position that requires monthly payment so that I can have my farm work carried on and I take the work. You might write me again about such work.

Your Friend

David Redthunder

Mr. David Redthunder, Browns Valley, Minn.

Dear Friend:-

I have your letter of July ninth together with your record, and was very much pleased to hear from you. I note that you are desirous of obtaining employment, and would suggest that you write a letter to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington, D. C., and ask for the necessary blanks for that purpose. After you have filled out such blanks, the whole matter will probably be referred to me, and I shall be pleased to recommend you.

Very sincerely yours,

MF:SR

Superintendent.
