Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

This is a first class home for the boys. They have a small piece of about four acres and so the boys do not have hard work. The worst objection is, there is not enough work to keep two boys busy and they grow restless for want of occupation.

Mrs. Hartman is very kind and watchful to her boys and only the best influences are put before them.

I would not be in favor of placing but one boy in this home at a time. He would find more work and would not become jealous of a second boy, as has been the case.
