Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

The conditions are not first class about this home. The Husband seems to be all that is expected of any patron but the wife is untidy in the home and subjected to complaint.

She seems to think the world and all has gone wrong.

Mr. Steele is willing to keep Leau this summer and Leau is willing to remain. They also want a small boy to work in the house but I would not advise it.

There is no complaint whatever to be made against Mr. Steele and he and Leau will get along well together.

Leau seems to be just the kind of boy to suit this home for he has untidy ways which would prevent his being liked in a home of first class.

Leau is to have $10.00 this summer and I believe it is as good as he can do.
