Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

This is a good farm home and Mrs. Gregor is very much attached to Isaac. She uses him just as her own child and wants to keep him as long as he will stay.

He is well contented and would not leave willingly. He asked me if he would have to leave when his time was up at Carlisle.

Isaac has a little sister, Mary Belle Cook, and Mrs. Gregor would like very much to have her also. She asks that the management of Carlisle school make special effort to get her.

A better home could not be gotten and a brother and sister together would be company for one another.

Mrs. Gregor is willing to pay the pupil a little wage - about two dollars - as soon as the management asks it.
