Pennel-LaCroix

Mr. and Mrs. Gillenwater received the other day a clipping from a Madill, Oklahoma, paper which said:

“Last Tuesday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Rogers officiating, Henry LaCroix and Miss Florence Pennel were united in holy wedlock. Mr. LaCroix is a graduate of the Haskell University, and is now with the Indian agency here. His bride is from Washington, D. C.

This talented and cultured young couple, while practically strangers in Madill, are extended congratulations and best wishes and are given a hearty welcome as citizens. They are at home at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Dunehoo.”

Mr. LaCroix is temporary assisting district agent at Madill. He is preparing a nice home for his bride. Mrs. LaCroix had good training in the domestic department here and understands home-making, so there is a bright future before them.

Mrs. H. S. LaCroix, of Madill, Oklahoma, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Reuben Estes and other friends in this locality. She was a schoolmate at Haskell with our stenographer, Miss Wright, and Miss Bartholomeau, our laundress. We are getting a jolly bunch of Indian maidens around here, all of whom seem to be able to hold their own alongside of their white sisters.—The Brule Rustler.

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.
