Dunscith, N. Dak;

April 29, 1912.

Supt. M. Friedman,
Earlisle,
Pa.,

Dear Supt;

Only a few lines
in order to state my condition and ask you a few questions.

I am in the best of health, but then I certainly long to be at dear old Earlisle where I
indeed have improved

in my studies and also house-keeping
I am sure that I could run any house for anybody
and give satisfaction.

I am indeed very sorry that I
couldnt stay to finish, of course I really could have stayed if I would have want to real bad, but I see it was betten I did come, because of all the changes I see
at home.

I think I will go to school, at Dunseith high school during the coming winter and take an examination to become a teacher for the coming year and also take music lessons.

I am going out to work in a cook car in the fall at $4.00 or $5.00 a day and save my money for my lessons.

I would be very much obliged if you would send me my money that I have in the bank over there because there are a lot of little things that are missing at home and not use to it. I would like to get them. I would be very much obliged if you send it all. And also will you please send me my trust patent that I had sent over there to keep while I was at Jenkintown,

Pa., the dear old place.

Some day when I am rich enough to spend money to pay my fare I shall go
and visit Carlisle, West Chester and Jenkintown where I left so many friends so dear
to me.

Oh! one sure thing I want to know is; will you kindly send me the "Earlisle Arrow" I shall be very interested in it, take money from my account to pay for it for a year for I shall be very interested in it, just as if I were there.

I wear a little flag of "E." which Miss Gaither had sent me by Mrs Fromm, and the people asks me what it stands for, and I tell them that it stands for my dear, beloved school, old "Earls" and they think I am great that I went so far for an education and ask me questions about it, but I certainly stick to it.

I think its awful queer out here although I was born here, but I can't seem to get use to it.

I am always thinking of dear old Carlisle and sometimes dreaming of it and the good times I spent there.

It is cold out here, but no snow, but windy all the time.

I must close with thanking you of the fine education I received while I was there and all the pleasures you had given us.

Hoping to hear from

you by return mail.

Also please send me the "Red Man" with the commencement exercises in it if there isn't any trouble.

With best wishes and love to all hoping luck for the future "Senior" class.

Sincerely a student,
Mary E. Lambert.

May 4th, 1912.

Miss Mary Lambert,

Dunseith, N.D.

Dear Mary,

I have your letter of the 29th, requesting the balance of money to your credit and am enclosing herewith check for the amount which kindly sign on the face before presenting for payment.

Your friend,

W.H.M.

Superintendent,

May 4, 1912.

Mary Lambert
Dunseith, N. D.
Dear friend:-

I have your letter requesting the trust patent which you sent me last fall and I am sending it to you in this letter. Please let me know as soon as you get it.

Your name has been placed on the Arrow list and you will get the paper each week from now on. You must keep me informed of your address, as you change, so you may not lose any copies of the paper.

I am glad to know that you do not intend to stop with your getting an education. It would be better however if you could get work with a private family. Cooking for a threshing crew brings good money but it is not the kind of work for a young girl.

Let me hear from you from time to time as I am always glad to get letters from our returned pupils.

Very truly yours

NRD

Supt. M. Friedman,
Carlisle,

Pa.,

My dear Supt.,

Your most kind
and welcome letter was received today
and I thank you for it.

I arrived home
safe, but very lonely.
I stayed at Chicago from 8.20

9. M. on Sunday and stayed there till 10.00 P. M.

My trip over
was very nice,
but I was very tired.

Mr Friedman
I really think that this is a very funny country, everything is so funny
I simply can't get use to it.

I don't think that I will stay here over a year

over here.
If I don't go in the fall I will try and go and finish
in a year.

If I once get over there again
I will never come out here.

There isn't any sign of green grass
yet.

My mother is changed very much
I don't think she will live many more years so I don't suppose I could go in the fall.

There is certainly a great change
out here in and out of the house.
It seems so funny
that I can't hardly live out here. Its so cold.

Hoping that you will please send me the "Arrow" every week, the time won't be so long reading it.

We haven't any snow, but then its so cold.

I went up town to hire a rig to bring my trunks and he charged me a dollar. Brother Mike brought all the wagons to his farm, and we couldn't use the buggy.

Oh! I certainly will be glad when I get a chance to go over there.

Of course any time I want to go I could go because I am of age, but I think I better stay with my mother awhile at least.

The house certainly seems sad, it seems all black, and every body is in black.

I must now close with best wishes and love to all.

I am sincerely your pupil,

Mary E. Lambert.
