Mr. Friedman:-

I thought I would drop you a few lines. I am enjoying myself at home.

Sister Cecelia is away from home she is with mother and father at White River South Dakota. She also tells me that she saw some of the Carlisle students at South Dakota. She saw Gladys Mc Blain and her brother Robert. And Moses Stranger Horse

And says that Moses is married.
I hear my cousin Dominick Two Axe and his wife were visiting Carlisle for Commemoration week. Mr. Friedman I been wondering if you could sent me The Arrow And also I would like to get a copy of the Graduating class of this year. So I can have something to read through the week. Will close for this time. With my best love and regards.

I remain your friend
Martha Phillips.

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Meets Many Carlisle Ex-Students.

From Caughnawaga, Canada, Martha Phillips writes that her sister Cecelia is living with their parents at White River, South Dakota. Cecelia often meets ex-students of Carlisle; she mentions Gladys McLean and her brother Robert, also Moses Stranger Horse; the latter, she states, was married some time ago, but she does not say to whom.
