INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Mr. Moore has an excellent home and is kind but firm in dealing with his boys. In fact they became attached to him and don't care to leave.

Same Indian boy by the name of Prentiss who used to live with him is now back working as a regular hand.

Ira is very pleased with his home and wishes to remain during summer of 1911. Mr. Moore also wishes to keep him.

Ira's clothes are kept in neat order but he does not have enough. I have ordered some by separate writing.

Ira is very kind and affectionate and in sympathy with all that is for his good. He broke into tears when he spoke of the kindness bestowed upon him by his Patrons.
