Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

This is a good farm home and patrons are of a Christian turn. A goodly number of horses are kept and the environment is good. Mr. Mayberry is a good manager and I believe him to be kind and honest.

Mr. Mayberry reports Nelson to be from fair to good in conduct but slow to act.

I visited Nelson in his school and found he had mistreated his teacher by using vain language when reproved.

He seemed penitent and promised to obey her rules hereafter.

The trouble seemed to start from impromptness on part of the pupil, and lack of patience in part of the teacher.

When asked to recite he was long about responding - a well known Indian trait - and the teacher not knowing his exact nature grew impatient. I infer that it was a mistake by the teacher as well as a fault of the boy.

He was suspended from school for a time but all is made right again.
