Mr. Enoch Wilson affords an excellent home for the boys and takes good interest in his boys.

He, Mr. Wilson, wishes to keep Hugh during the summer and will pay him eighteen and twenty dollars per month. Hugh is also willing to remain with him.

Mr. Wilson also wishes another boy who is bright and has had some experience to work with Hugh. Will pay him according to ability.

Mr. Wilson drives to market often and leaves the boys at home together to work so for that reason would want a boy who would not shirk his duty.
