Saint Francis S.H.

My dear Sept.

As the pleasant hour affords me a splendid opportunity I will endeavor to write you a few lines just to let you know that I am still in a safe and sound condition and I must say that I have been most greatly proud of my education and of which I know that I myself have a splendid chance of gaining more knowledge and ability.
I realized now that I have lost a great thing by not staying at Carlisle longer than I have been. Although at the same time I appreciate and thank you for the learning which I received from at your Institution Hoping that I may hear from you in due time

I remain Truly Yours
Gallus Spotted Eagle

P.S. Kindly give my classmates teachers, and friends my heartly congratulations by putting this letter of mine in your weekly paper called the Pioneer.
