Mr Friedman.

Dear Sir.

Enclosed please find report of Lloyd Reed. I am sorry to lose him, especially since I was disappointed in Chas Chute. Chute was untrustworthy very dilatory when out of my sight and not to be trusted at all. While Lloyd is allright all the time, you feel sure the work will be done as far as he knows how no matter where you may be, I shall miss him very much,

I am sorry he did not want to remain out for the winter, as I am now left alone, I recomend that Lloyd receive credit due him. while Clute should be severely reprimanded for misconduct and dishonesty.

Yours Rspt.

INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.
