Clifford is fond of his home and gives first class satisfaction. He has excellent ability and leads his classes in school. He is also recommended as excellent help about the home. Clifford has been using cigarette but has promised me not to continue the habit.

Mrs. Headey affords an excellent home for him and will do all that can be done to bring him up in a proper way. Clifford is willing to remain in this home during the summer season and Mrs. Headey is willing to keep him at $7 to $8 per month.

Mrs. Headey is anxious to have Moses Fern come back to Carlier and learn the Carpentry trade, which seems to be his natural vocation. She would like him to live with her during vacations and work at his trade in school during the winter. She even shows a willingness to send him to a training school if thought best by the cutting management.

Clifford is a good worker and does it cheerfully but he is inclined to disobey and is impudent. He goes from his home to play ball etc in the middle of the week though he has been given Saturday afternoons for that purpose. I have had a good talk with Clifford and he promises me to do better. He has the cigarette habit which Mrs Headey is trying to break him of.

Mrs Headey is very kind to him and will do all possible to make him happy in his home.

Since the above Clifford ran from his home. This is a most excellent home and the boy had no reason for desertion.

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Clifford does not like his place on account of his country mother. He claims she will take special that she will not speak to him. Mrs. McComas seems very nice and pleasant so it is hard to judge who is on the wrong.

I find an unfriendly feeling between man and wife which perhaps is the cause of all the trouble. Mr. likes the boys and she takes the opposite stand just to disagree with him.

I would not advise placing boys in this home next year, unless it would be to do outside work only. (Not at all)

Clifford wants a transfer.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child.
