Supt. John Francis, Jr.,

Miss Cora E. Bresette,
Klamath Agency,
Klamath, Oregon

Dear Madam:

Possibly Replying to your letter of the 2d inst., in which you say that you would like to secure a clerical position in one of the automobile factories in Detroit, I have to advise that you communicate with Mr. Charles E. Dagnette, supervisor of Indian employment, Washington, D. C., relative to your wishes. I feel quite sure that he will be able to help you.

Very truly yours,
Chief Clerk in Charge

D-ME

It has occurred to me that if I could secure a position in the city I could attend night school; also that as the superintendent of Carlisle you may be able to assist me. It is my understanding that one or two young men hold clerical positions in the automobile factories in Detroit, and if I could do likewise, I would be the happiest of men Carlisle has known in a long time.

I would appreciate any assistance you may be able to

Supt. John Francis, Jr.,

Carlisle Indian School,

Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Francis:

Possibly you may recall having met me about one year ago at the Vermilion Lake School, Tower, Minnesota, when employed by Dr. Benson.

I graduated from Carlisle in 1912. I have been in the Indian Service for the past three and one half years in the capacity of assistant clerk. I have been at the Klamath Agency since November last. I am desirous of taking up a few branches of the business course but feel that I cannot afford to give up my work. It has occurred to me that if I could secure a position in the city I could attend night school; also that as the superintendent of Carlisle you may be able to assist me. It is my understanding that one or two young men hold clerical positions in the automobile factories in Detroit, and if I could do likewise, I would be the happiest Alumnus Carlisle has known in a long time.

I would appreciate any assistance you may be able to give me in securing such a position.

Thanking you in anticipation, I am

Dear Miss Bresette:

Your letter of July 24th was received during my absence from the school, hence the delay in replying.

In regard to the photograph you refer to, I have to advise that the Commissioner of Indian Affairs requested me to send to him all the photographs we had of Indian babies for use in his Baby Saving Campaign. I do not know whether this photograph can be secured for you or not, but I will see what I can do. In all probability, it has been given to some newspaper for publication, and I may not be able to secure it. However, I will see what can be done.

Very respectfully,

I would be pleased if you would look into this matter,

OHL:SR Superintendent.

Very respectfully,

Sir: Miss Bresette!

Sometime in March you forwarded, or caused to be forwarded, to all Superintendents in the Indian Service, Circulars requesting each Superintendent to submit to you photographs of Indian Babies which you wished to use in connection with the "Save the Babies" number of the Red Man. At that time I was employed in the Government Office at Odanah, Wisconsin, and upon the request of Supt. Everest, I took several snapshots of Indian babies at Odanah with my kodak, but among the several snapshots was a photograph of Jerome Meyers, Jr., which Mr. Everest promised to have you return when it had served its purpose. The photograph is a pet possession of mine as he is the son of a former schoolmate of mine while at Carlisle.

I would be pleased if you would look into this matter, and return to photograph to me.

My dear Miss Cora:

This is to acknowledge receipt of the kind wishes you addressed to me in response to my Christmas greeting. I thank you for the same. Your letter was one of many others that have come to me this new year and it is gratifying to know that we have the co-operation and good will of those former students who are now making a success of life at their homes or in communities where they have become located.

May Carlisle always be an asset to you in whatever you undertake, is my wish.

Very sincerely yours,
