INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

Dear Mr Friedmann:—

I thought

I would drop you a few lines + let you know I am very sorry I couldn't go back to Caribol this winter on account of mama being so sickly here lately.
She hasn't been well for a long time now + she wants me to be near her this winter.
I sure did want to go back.
Mr Friedmann I sure would like to get the arrow so will you please see that they send me it. I expect you have lots of new children again this winter. I've been suffering

here lately with an awful rheum on my left thumb.
It's much better now only
I am going to loose my nail.
I see where our Carlisle boys are doing fine again
in foot ball this winter.
We are having pretty cold weather now but haven't had any snow yet.

Well I must close.

Your faithfully scholar,
Eliza Dyer
Mission. P. D.
