INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

5/11, 1911

Mr. John Maple is an elderly man about 70 yrs. of age but active and strong, being able to do a fair days work.

He impresses me as a man of strong temper but of good sound judgment and self control.

He affords a good home for his boys and is fair in discipline.

Mrs Maple is kind and motherly with a slight inclination to be outspoken and tell her mind regardless of the auditor.

General conditions are good as far as I am able to judge.

James is pleased with his home and expresses himself in full sympathy with what is good. He, however, is inclined to show a weakness in willpower, and should be kept from evil associates.

I talked with him in regards to his smoking and he promised to try to keep from it.
