DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
UNITED STATES INDIAN SCHOOL,
CARLISLE, PA.

May 5th, 1913.

Mr. Frank Conroy,

My dear Sir:

For the reason that your son Harry has remained here for a full three year period of enrollment he will be entitled to return home at the close of the school, in June, and at that time he will be provided with transportation at government expense.

I am pleased to know that you are so well satisfied with the progress that has been made by Harry, and for the reason that he has advanced so rapidly we want him to be with us again at the opening of the new school year in September.

You will be notified at a later date just when you may expect him to arrive at home.

Very truly yours,

M. Friedman,

Superintendent.

Mr. Harry Conroy,
LaCreek, S.D.

Dear Harry,

I have your letter of the 17th, relative to amount you claim due you from Paul Bald Eagle. In reply I have to advise you that you should deal with Paul direct the same as you did when you lent him the money. If we undertook to collect all the debts the Indians owe to each other, we would soon be a collection agency with plenty of business.

Very respectfully,

W.H.M.

Superintendent,

*Yours faithfully
Harry Conroy*

Facreek, So. Dak.

Mr. W. H. Miller
Carlisle, Pa

July 17, 1913.

Dear sir, -

Before I left Carlisle last June 16, Paul Baldeagle told me that he made arrangement with you and Mr. Friedman to send me $100 out of his bank account on the following "money day" after I left. Paul owes me that money and I want immediate attention as I need it at once.

I will be glad to hear from you soon if there are any mistake about this matter.

Yours Truly
Harvey Courvoisier

Mr. DeHuff:

I have Mr. Lipps's permission to submit for your information the attached correspondence, and in order that the teachers who were interested too in Conroy's welfare may know something more about him it is suggested that those in the four highest Grades in the Academic Department be allowed to read the enclosures which will have to remain permanently in the young man's record file.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir: Replying to your letter regarding the transportation of your son to the school. I have in my possession a letter from you dated the full term of 1910-11. Mr. Frank Conroy, was there in my absence. I would like to have you Martin, South Dakota. any further delay, and I trust you will verify the statements contained in the above referred to letter.

My dear Sir:

It is presumed that the letter you addressed to me on the 13th instant is a reply to the one that was written you on October the 21st of 1914. However, I do not see how your request to be reimbursed for the transportation you provided for your son Harry in 1910 can be considered at this late date.

Another examination of our records has disclosed the fact that Harry had not been enrolled for a full three year period when he went to his home in June of 1913 because he did not come to Carlisle until December the 9th of 1910, and according to the Rules then in force he could not be given credit for the fractional part of that school year.

Regretting that a more favorable reply cannot be conveyed to you, I am,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.

Mr. B.H. Lipps,

Carrisle, Pa.

Dear sir: Replying to your letter regarding reimbursement for fare to the school. I have in my possession a letter from your predecessor saying my son, Harry, had completed his full term of three years, and I know of my own personal knowledge that he was there three winters. I would like to have this matter adjusted without any further delay, and I trust that your records will verify the statements contained in the above referred to letter.

Very truly yours,

Frank Corroy.

SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the Agency records. The agent will then send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the Agency records. The agent will then send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

My dear Sir:

Your son Harry arrived at Carlisle on Sunday evening of this week. He did not report at the school until Monday morning, and at that time he signed an application for a one year period of enrolment. Since then he has had some difficulty with the Disciplinarian in charge of our larger boys, as is indicated by a report of which I submit a copy below:

"I beg to inform you that Harry Conroy left the school this morning for his home. He has been a print shop boy for some years and had become proficient in that line of work and it was desired that he take up this work at this time but he refused to do this. I therefore detailed him with other boys to the farm to help in the stress of farm work for a time. He refused to work at the farm and said that sooner than do that kind of work even for a limited period he would return to his home and pay his own transportation. I told him that since he seemed to be in the wrong spirit to aid himself or be of any help to the school and by his manner was a source of discontent among other students he had better return to his home at once. He took his trunk and assured me that he would go at once to his home."

It is to be regretted that he did not remain here for the additional year required to finish our regular Academic Course, and under the circumstances he will not be entitled to enroll at any other Government School.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Mr. M. Friedman, Superintendent:

I respectfully submit the following regarding the conduct of Harry Conroy while in these quarters: Harry was always particular about his appearance taking good care of his clothing and person as well as his room. His general deportment was good about the quarters but upon his detail work he was often reported to me as being impudent and not taking kindly to the suggestions and advise of his instructor. He was reported several times as trying to incite discontent among the other boys on their detail work. I believe that Harry was the only boy that was reported to me by the Printer for this manner of conduct though he has a very large detail at the Printing Office.

Upon Harry's return to school this year he seemed very indifferent about taking up any line of industrial work. I suggested to him that he resume his old trade of Printer at which he had worked so long and as his chances for making a life work successful along that line appeared better than at any other trade which he would take up for a short time however I suggested that if he had decided to abandon printing and wanted to learn another trade that he name it and I would try to do what I could for him and that if he did not have the thing clear in mind I would let him work on the farm for a time to think matters over. This he flatly refused to do before several other students, telling me that he was no horse and that he would not work on the farm even for a very short time. Of course this manner of talk could not be allowed neither could he or any of the other students be led to think that they could excuse themselves by such conduct from doing their share of necessary work. I told Harry to think the matter over and gave him plenty of time and reasoned with him as I was anxious to have him remain and resume his work here and hoped that he would abandon his stubborn idea but he did not and left the school in a short time. The farm to which he was to be sent for a few days joins the Athletic field and is only a few rods distant from these quarters.

Sir:-

I have the following to report relative to Harry Conroy:-

Shortly after Harry Conroy entered the school, there came into my hands a most vile letter which he had written to a girl at home. This letter now in the files at the office, shows Harry's character and his tendencies.

In October 1911, Harry was confined in the guard house for drunkenness.

He violated our rule regarding the use of snuff. At one time on the way to Sunday School, he used it openly before the Captain and the other boys. He then left the line and did not report for Sunday School. I disciplined him for this.

In December 1912, he was confined in the guard house for attempting to assault a white girl.

This spring I discovered he was the ring leader of a bunch of boys who were trying to raise an insurrection in the Small Boys' Quarters and causing much trouble.

Because of his acts as noted, I could never trust him although apparently he seemed quiet and orderly. I have observed him closely for three years and have sized him up as a low-minded, underhanded sneak.

Respectfully

Mr. Friedman, Superintendent:

Replying to your request for a detailed statement as to the conduct of Harry Conroy while in my department, the following is submitted:

Harry Conroy was a troublesome boy while in the Printing office. No boy ever gave me so much annoyance as this boy did. Many of his annoyances were apparently done with premeditation. Notwithstanding many quiet talks with him, his general conduct remained unchanged. The only times any improvement was apparent would be after a severe reprimand or after reporting him to the Disciplinarian. Kindly spoken reproof gave no results whatever. His lack of industry was notorious. I recall asking him one day, as I observed him sauntering down the room with both hands thrust deep down in his pockets, "Harry, what are you doing?" His reply was, "Just taking it as easy as I can," which was spoken in an insolent manner. Similar replies were received on many like occasions. At one time I suggested his name to a former disciplinarian who wanted a boy for a job in town but was told he wouldn't do because he was "too lazy."

One of the shop rules is that when a boy completes a given piece of work assigned to him that he shall report to the instructor for more work. He was a determined and persistent violator of this regulation, his habit being to go off in some side room and sit down. I used every effort to win this boy over to industry and good conduct, but met with flat failure as a whole.

Last fall he came to me and wanted to be excused from my detail to take up a business course. As my force at that time was very short, with a large amount of work on hand, I refused to release him except conditionally, and the business department would not accept him in this way. After this, his increasing misconduct plainly indicated that he was trying to force me to release him. I frankly told him that unless his conduct became equal to the average boy that I would not consent to have him leave my detail. As a matter of discipline I could not afford to permit any such result being brought about in the manner he was attempting to do it.

During the last year Harry was in the shop I organized a self-governing body which was charged with the enforcement of the shop regulations. Upon one occasion, after having reproved him for his careless manner of doing the work assigned to him, I turned the case over to his fellow workers for trial. After hearing my arges against him and listening to his defense, on a vote of all present he was unanimously convicted.

Notwithstanding his annoying actions, I again recommended him for a temporary job in town during the late fall. He made good on the work, so far as I know, and after a few weeks returned to the shop. I was expecting an improvement after this, but was disappointed so far as any lasting change in this direction was evidenced.

When Harry went home last summer, I decided that if he returned in the fall I would not allow him to re-enter the shop except on promise to conduct himself as other boys. I could not go through another year with him. He came in to see me, and said he did not want to come back to the shop. I told him it was immaterial to me, and that I would make no objection if I took up other work.

I have nothing but a feeling of kindness towards Harry, and I tried to plainly show this to him when he came in to see me.

Friedman,

Supt. Carlisle School,

Carlisle, Pa.

Sir:

I received your letter in regard to my son Harry. I feel very badly over the difficulty which resulted in his coming home and not finishing his course. I felt a pride in having him graduate at Carlisle as this was my old school, which my wife and I both attended under Superintendent Pratt.

My son says that he had worked in the printing office so long that he felt he should learn some other industry as there would not be much opening for an Indian boy at the printer's trade. Therefore he was anxious to take the Business Course which he understood fell to the lot of members of the senior class.

In your letter it seems that you wished him to continue in the print shop, which he refused to do and when you detailed him to the farm, two miles distance from the school, his refusing to do this work and saying he preferred rather to return home resulted in his coming back home. Whatever wrong my son did I wish him to amend so that he can finish his course at Haskell or some Government school. To return to Carlisle, under the circumstances, might be embarrassing to all concerned.

I wish the matter might have been deferred until I could have been telegraphed at least, as I am out about $100 for his going and coming. We might have been able to have adjusted the matter ^{no matter} what the blame might

I feel that you should have been more considerate for us as parents. Such dealing is apt to injure the boy for life. I have always understood from your reports that he has always born a good reputation during the three years he has been attending your school.

I realize it is the disposition ^{of} a young fellow to be a little rash, but a person at the head of a large institution can well afford to be deliberate and try to get a boy to see what is best for him. I only wish that this could have been brought about.

Please let me hear from you as soon as you can as I do not wish to lose any more time.

Sir:

Enclosed, I send you the statement of the Day School Inspector of this reservation concerning the enrollment of my son, Harry Conroy, in the Carlisle Indian School, in the fall of 1910.

The railroad fare and the expenses en route for my son, I myself paid, expecting they would be refunded to me by the Superintendent of Carlisle. My son asked Mr. Friedman for reimbursement several times, but the expenses mentioned above have never been paid.

I will not press a claim for my son's food during the trip to Carlisle, as vouchers for this cannot now be obtained. But I still have a just claim against the Carlisle School for his railroad fare from Rushville, Nebraska, to Carlisle, Pa.

I now request that the amount paid for railroad fare be refunded to me. The exact amount of this fare I cannot state, and am inclined to think it was different from that now charged over same route. The charge at that time can easily be determined in the office of the Carlisle School.

The enrolment record card that is on file here with other information regarding your son Harry indicates that he was enrolled at this school on December the 9th of 1910 for a two year period. That fact alone precluded any possibility of arranging a reimbursement for the amount you expended in sending your son to Carlisle.

Later on when he did remain in school for the three year period a claim might possibly have been considered, but there is no record here of such a claim having been presented for settlement.

Dear Sir:

The Supervisor at Carlisle has informed me by letter, a copy of which he caused to be sent to you, that I am not entitled to be reimbursed for railroad fare paid out for my boy Harry when we went to Carlisle to attend to school. I understand the rule to be that the Government pays the fare if the pupils stay full three years. Harry stayed the full three years as will be shown by the enclosed copy of a letter I have in my possession from the former Supervisor. I advanced the fare for the trip to Carlisle and have applied to the present Supervisor to be reimbursed, but he refuses to do so on the grounds set out in the letter, a copy of which he sent you. I think I am entitled to be reimbursed in the matter and would respectfully ask that you take up this matter with the proper authorities.
