Mr. M. Friedman, Supt.,

My dear Mr. Friedman:

I am anxious to secure the services of a young man as blacksmith in the Service and the name of Charles Lane, of Beach, Washington, has been given to me as one who is capable of fulfilling the duties of such a position creditably. I am informed that he has recently left Carlisle but I have no copy of his efficiency on form 5-244, and would appreciate a report concerning the ability and character of the boy and your opinion as to the advisability of recommending him for a competent blacksmith.

Let me thank you for your kindness and assistance.
