UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

Carlisle Indian School,

Nov.17-13.

Mr.M.Friedman, Superintendent:

In reply to telegram from Thomas Crow Necklace desiring reentrance to this school,I would say that Necklace has a very bad record here,drinking and general disregard for school disciplin. I heartily disapprove of his being taken back. He has a record of a cronic runaway along with the rest.

2584

I have no intimate knowledge of the record of James Campbell but know that shortly after being entered here he ran away and after being reentered he ran again. If he has settled down to business and wishes to make some use of the advantages of this school I would suggest that he be given another trial.

Very respectfully,

E. E. McLean.

Disciplinarian.
