Supt. M. Friedman
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you today to inform you that my mother has successfully arranged that one of my older brothers, is to come and stay with her this fall.

So I wish to ask of you for a re-leave from I wish, that I may attend the term now I institute, not that I have any thing against your school or system, but if you

will look over my health record you
will find that it
wasnt very good
especially for the past term, and for this fact I would like to <sup>attend</sup> another school, while I am able.

By being in poor health I missed a lot of study and work. My mother

being unable to write
wishes me to say
that she has approved
to my going there.

Hoping that you
will grant my request. I remain

Yours truly
William Palim
