The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employe of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

Mrs. Foster House, Oneida, Wisconsin, wanted to a boy or girl
My dear Madam: apply for enrollment with your boy.

Several days previous to the time when your letter of August the 30th came to me I had a letter from your daughter, Anna King, asking that permission be given her to return to Carlisle. Our school physicians were then asked to make me a report, and I submit below the statement that was received:

Copy to Superintendent Hart.

"Anna King was sent home in April this year because she had a bad heart, loss of weight and very bad eyes, which prevented her from going to school. She had not attended school for some time before she was recommended to go home on account of the above conditions.

It is my opinion that she should not be permitted to return to this school as it would be but a short time when her condition would be the same as before and have to be sent home again."

In view of the fact that she would probably not be strong enough to do even a part of the year's work it will not be advisable to receive her again until a more nearly permanent cure has been effected.

Your fifteen year old boy can be received here

Miss Anna King,
Carlisle, Wisconsin.

My dear Friend:

Dear Sir

Upon receipt of your letter of August the 25th I asked Drs. Allen and Frelie to submit me a report in regard to the advisability of allowing you to return to school. What they did submit to me was entirely unfavorable, so I regret to advise that you can not be given permission to return to Carlisle.

I thank you for the information you conveyed to me regarding Helene Adams's desire to be enrolled here. I am writing her today and am sending her an application blank.

Hoping that the condition of your heart will improve to the extent that it will again be advisable to enroll you here, I remain, with best wishes,

Your friend,

Can you tell me what has become of my niece since King it has been over three years

November 1, 1916.

Mrs. Washaska Warde, 175 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, Dear Madam:

What to think of it she would

Your letter addressed to Mr. Friedman comes to my attention. The records show that your niece, Anna King, left the school in April, 1913, because of illness. She was sent home to her mother, Mrs. Foster House of Oneida, Wisconsin. We have not heard anything directly from Anna since that time. I think that if she had died we would have heard of it. I think you can get any information you want by writing to Mr. Hart, Supt. at Oneida, Wisconsin.

And all of me than she had a heart trouble and had a bad throat never wore any more

We publish a weekly paper, the Arrow, and if you wish us to send you this please send twenty-five cents which will pay for the Arrow for one year.

Very truly yours,
