Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Clarence wishes to go back to Carisle in September. He is an excellent boy to work and has good habits. He does not run at night though he has been coaxed by others. He has become discontented at his country home which I think is due to influence from a fellow pupil.

Mr. Sterner is a school teacher and cannot be home with his boys in early spring and fall so he should have a boy who is able to go ahead with the work during his absence.

Mr. Sterner should pay a more money for his first boy in order to get one competent to do his work.
