Grade of home No. 3.

Lomnie is well pleased with his home and gets along well in his school being the most apt in his grade. He is willing to remain out next summer. I think he should be able to earn at least $5.00 per month next summer.

Mr. Swartz has asked for Eddie Adams in the spring and Eddie is willing to go.

D. H. Dickey
Protecting Agent.

I visited this boy in his country home and at the public school in which he is a pupil Jan. 4, 1912 and found him very nicely located. The people with whom he is living seem think well of him, and his teacher speaks very highly of his ability in school, as he practically leads his classes.

The boy likes his country home and desires to remain there as long as possible.
