A peasant-Jamaican, Polite an old gentleman, a practical Janyer - says B. is fairly satisfactory. He has done much better since he ran away & was returned. He now seems to understand he has to obey instructions, he is inexperienced all improving, if he continues to improve & work to stay he will keep him.

John L. M. & B. are all as from same place. It is my judgment. They should be separated.

B. says he likes his work & will stay all summer. Teacher says B. is about up to grade commands given. Application Jan.

Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

Beverly Decora is not well liked by his patrons. He is of a sullen disposition, fails to say much and cannot do things with much satisfaction.

He claims he did not like his home at Sam's Hill's and that he likes this one better. He is too much inclined to have things his own way.

Mr. Palmer seems to be kind and firm to his boys. He is good in discipline.
