INDORSEMENT.

A child showing one-sixteenth or less Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, Indian fashion, who, if debarred from the Government schools, could not obtain an education, may be permitted in the reservation day and boarding schools, but it is preferable that it be not transferred to a nonreservation school, without permission from the Office. Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

A pupil dismissed from school for cause must not be enrolled in any other school without the permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Full facts must be submitted with each request.

Dec. 10th, 1913.

Miss Eva Waterman,

R. F. D. 5, Syracuse, New York.

Dear Friend:

I attach hereto a letter from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs notifying you that you are one of those students of Carlisle to whom a third prize has been awarded in the contest that was conducted last year with Home Building essays.

I congratulate you on being one of those whose study of the subject has merited such recognition, and the bronze medal that is also being enclosed should prove to be an ever present reminder of the degree of proficiency you achieved in writing your essay. I hope you will soon have an opportunity to put your home building ideas into actual practice.

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Superintendent.

Dear Mrs. Billingham.

I have been thinking of you ever since I left Lincoln but this is my first opportunity to write. I have been into trouble ever since I left you and I don't think I'll ever get rid of it until September. Miss Johnston has been here once already and she told me that she thinks they will let me go home, than I will write and let you know how I make out.

Mrs. Billingham, I certainly do miss your good eats, but I sure do want to apologize for what I have done to you but listen I can't do any know where I'll be. I haven't had my trunk unpacked since the 17th of June. I live with an old maid and her niece & nephew in a small bungalow, but their real home is in Philadelphia.

They pay me $10 a month, that's

Dear Mr. Friedman:

Relative to Era Waterman's case, For some time she has been writing such "crazy" and impertinent letters saying what she would do and wouldn't do. All these were in reference to her Indian marriage. In no instance did she complain of her home although I did not consider the home the most satisfactory. In fact, I took Era there as a "makeshift" one day when I had to make a hurried transfer yet there was nothing tangibly wrong with the home—only that it is rather isolated and that the old lady is rather fussy and peculiar.

She received $10 per month and the work was exceedingly light. Three in family—all adults. She read book, lay in the hammock, and played croquet in her leisure which was considerable. Y. L. L.

When I visited Era I told her regarding her desire to go home that she could not go now—that would have to be settled in Sept.—neither could she return to Carlisle until she was called in. But because I was not quite satisfied with the home (although I didn't let Era know it) I promised that should I find a better place to locate her in the next two weeks, I would transfer her. This was understood by both Era and her patron.

MR. D. H. DICKEY, Boys' Agent.

If no better opening was offered, Era was to ^{and try to do right} remain there until called in with the party ~~the~~ last of Aug. This Era faithfully promised to do and this is how she kept her promise:-

By leaving her country home - as a deserter on Monday, going to Hattow, spending the night with Rev. Colby's family. Rev. Colby notified Mr. Lanchlen that Era was there. She says she left her home because she didn't like it - that they were queer - that she never had a pillow slip on her pillow. When I was there and inquired for the slip as I saw none on the pillow, Era told me it was in the wash. Now she says she lied to me that day. She says she ran because she knew she would be caught anyway and she wanted to get back to Carlisle so she is getting what she wants.

She cannot blame her home because she could have made the best of what wasn't bad for four weeks more.

She has hitherto had a good record both at school and on the "Outing" until this year - as far as I know.

All privileges might be taken away and work all day in the laundry might be required for a certain length of time and if possible she should be prevented from communicating with the girls and making herself a heroine instead of a failure.

Very respectfully,

Telegram received concerning Ethel Williams and Ada Crouse. Ethel is at Embreeville, Chester Co. home. Mrs. Fassitt took Ada back home with her. I didn't want to bring one without the other so will go out to the Fassitt home on Friday to see what I will do with Ada. Both girls were picked up on Monday and taken to the Chester Co. home. Mr. Garrett, the Supt. will keep Ethel till I call for her. Will let you know by wire what I am doing with them. on Friday.

A telegram will reach me up until 10:30 or 11:00, at Mrs. Alfred Fassitt, Kennett, Pa. but as they live in the country, I am not sure of delivery neither am I sure if they have a phone. However, I'll do as seems most advisable with Ada Crouse. Ethel Williams, of course, will have to be returned and punished most severely.
