Mr. Fudman

Dear Friend

As you already know why I cannot be present I want to do some explaining

Dec. 6th, 1913.

But I see you are frustrated that I will be gone in the

Mr. John Connors,
Iroquois, New York.

My Dear Friend:

I have noted in your letter of recent date that you will probably not return to Carlisle until the opening of the next school year. I regret to hear that you will lose so much time, because it is my opinion that you should be able to go ahead with your school work long before the fall of 1914.

In the meanwhile, if you do not return, it is only fair that you should reimburse the government for the amount that was expended to bring you to Carlisle.
The cost of your ticket from Buffalo was $8.00.

Very truly yours,

HCH.

Superintendent.

Friend

you already why I cannot as I want take a time to explain

But I'll tell you Friend, that I will be back there in the fall, and my hunt
will be all right
then, and will get right down to business.

If you have any thing
to say about me

coming back before please tell me, But I want ^{to} ~~to~~ write full you true friend
John C. Conners
