Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. Dec. 17th, 1913.

Mr. Patrick Big Bear,
Polson, Montana.

My dear Sir:

This is to notify you that your nephew, James Kallowot, deserted from this school on November the 22nd. On November the 28th I received a telegram from the Chief of Police of Petersburg, Virginia, stating that James and another boy had been arrested in that city. Transportation was then placed for his use to return to Carlisle, but before the same was made available at Petersburg he was released from custody and could not then be located. Since that time we have not heard anything at all regarding him.

Very truly yours,

H.M.

Superintendent.

Referring further to your letter of January the 11th and my reply thereto on January the 18th, this is to advise that I have just heard from Mr. C. S. Bradby of Lester Manor, Virginia, that James Kallewat enlisted in the United States Army in September, probably under the name of James Kelly.
