Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. she gets a home March 9, 1912.

Mr. M. Friedman,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

I have received word that my daughter, Emma Coulson was not happy at her country home in "Rising Sun, Md." on account of ill treatment.

I wish to say that my heart is very much troubled when my children are not happy, there is plenty of time in their older years to worry and see troubles. so I wish you would please call her in or see that live in as a part of the family.

Emma is our youngest child
and may somewhat be spoiled but to my knowledge she is obedient if asked in a quiet and kind way.
and I do not wish her
to be worked very hard
I want her to have plenty of time for study that is what we send her away
for.

Your immediate-attention
will greatly oblige.

Catherine Conroy,
Quincy, Wis.

March 13, 1912.

Mrs. Catharine Coulon
Oneida, Wis.
Dear Madam:-

I have your letter relative to your daughter Emma, who is now living under the outing with Miss Mary Cameron of Rising Sun, Md. I have arranged for Emma to return to the school April 10th when we make our regular spring changes. I am doing this because, the field agent reports that she has had some trouble with her eyes and I want her to come in for treatment.

I was not aware that she had been mistreated in any way. The field agent has not reported anything like that. Emma lives in a home where there is just one lady and I thought she would have easy work and plenty of time for study. I do not think she has been overworked in any way.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
