MARRIAGE OF CARLISLE STUDENTS.

Miss Pearl Bonser, a member of the Freshman Class and honored president of the Susan Longstreth Literary Society, was married on Saturday, April 4th, to Mr. Samuel Saunooke, a worthy member of the Cherokee tribe, and for a number of years an efficient and faithful employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad in the carshops at Altoona, Pa.

A small and select company of friends and admirers of the young people assembled in Mr. Lipps's parlor to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Alexander McMillan, of St. John's Episcopal Church.

The bride is a handsome girl and her dress of soft white material enhanced her natural loveliness.

The groom, athletic and fine appearing in the conventional black suit, looked worthy of his lovely bride.

The room was prettily decorated with Easter flowers, and the music furnished by Mr. Francis Zahn and Miss Mary Pleets was very pleasing indeed.

Mr. Lipps gave the bride away, and Miss Florence Renville acted as maid of honor. Mr. Harry Bonser was best man.

The guests were Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Denny, Mr. and Mrs. McKean, Miss Reichel, Mrs. Canfield, Miss Yoos, Mrs. Deitz, Miss Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Whitwell, Miss McCauley, Miss Baird, Miss Anna Roulette, and Mr. Thos. St. Germaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunooke left Saturday afternoon for a wedding trip through North Carolina, after which they will begin house keeping in Altoona, Pa.

Dear Mr Lipps.

I wish to thank you
for sending me the prize,
which I earned from the
"Citizenship" essay.

I don't believe anyone was as surprised as I was to get it, for tho I did my best at that time, I thought the essay was far indeed
from what I should have made it. It hasn't been so very long since I received a bronze medal from my essay on "Home Building," so I am beginning to truly know that my work while at Carlisle has helped to make me the woman I am trying to be. Sam and I are living in the refined home of Mr and Mrs G. Krape, and as Mr Krape is one of Sam's shop mates, we feel very much at home. I have been taking turns in getting

The meals, and so with what I know in the sewing and the nursing lines, I ought to keep my own home quite nicely. We are going to go on a weekend visit to Bloomsburg soon to see some friends.

I have been very happy and fully contented since I last saw you, and I couldn't be if Sam wasn't so good, and of course I must be good too, don't you think so?

Please give all my friends my regards. Sam sends his regards to you. I

Dear Pearl:

I thank you very much for your kind letter of June 23rd. I am glad that you were one of the winners of the "Citizenship" prize, and I am glad to know that you and Sam are getting along nicely and are living happily together. Your brother Harry left for home a few days ago. He is an excellent young man and I am very much interested in his future. I have no doubt but that he will make good.

Mrs. Lipps and the children arrived yesterday from Idaho. They are quite tired from their long journey, but we are happy to be together again. I hope you and Sam may get down to see us sometime. We will be very glad to have you visit us at any time you have an opportunity.

With kind regards and best wishes, I remain,

We expect Corn, Sells

My dear Mrs. Saunooke:

I am delighted with the information conveyed in your letter of June 23rd, which I have just opened. I have always believed that the Indian has inventive genius, if he is only encouraged to develop it. I am very hopeful that Sam's invention will prove a commercial success. I should be glad to do anything I can for him, and if there is anything I can do, tell him not to hesitate to let me know.

We are getting along very nicely here at Carlisle this year. We have about one hundred students now attending our little summer school here, and twelve boys and girls left this morning for the Millersville State Normal School to attend the summer school there this summer. We have nineteen boys in the Ford Automobile Factory at Detroit, Michigan, taking a students' course there. Altogether, things look quite encouraging at Carlisle.

Your little sisters are well and getting along nicely. We had another wedding at Carlisle a few days ago. Aloysius Cheauma and Ursula Vinson were married last Thursday and left on the evening train for their home in Montana.
