Supt. of Carlisle School
Dear Sir

I have a letter from our agency asking if I wished Margie to return home. I wish it I must say I do at the earliest date possible.

and I do hope that - her three years spent at Carlisle have not been throde away but - I hope to see her come home with a diploma of some kind for that is what they had hoped for when they left home they went there with the hope of earning home something to show for the time spent - then and if they do not it will be a great pity both on her part and mine I was so proud to see that Margie got through and am so anxious for Margie.

with best wishes to yourself and the School I remain very truly your
