INDORSEMENTS.

---

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

Dear Sir:-

Dear Madam:
I have not heard from my sister Susie Lacy, for about 3 months. This is to acknowledge receipt of your kindly letter of June the 18th and to advise that your sister Susie had been placed at one of our outing homes upon her own request for the privilege. However, she did not give satisfaction and was sent in to the school by her patron. She is here now, but just as soon as another suitable outing home can be selected for her she will be given a chance to make a better record.

Any correspondence that is addressed to students at this school is always forwarded promptly to outing homes, so that there is no delay in the matter of reaching your sister whether she is here at <sup>at a</sup> or another home.

I would appreciate it very much if you will inform me if she is still at the school or in the country, and where?

Mr. H. E. Lacy,

220 Second St., Miami, Fla.

My dear Sir:

When your telegram came to me this morning your daughter Susie was seen at my office regarding your request that she be sent to Miami instead of Detroit, Minn. She stated that she intended to go to her sister's home until your return to Minnesota, and that she believed you would return soon to your former home.

In view of the fact that Susie's transportation to Miami would cost almost $4.00 more than her transportation to the place from which she was enrolled, which amount would have to be paid by you, she is being detained here until I hear again from you. Upon receipt of the amount specified above arrangements will be completed at once to have her leave for Miami.

Trusting that the action I am taking will meet with your approval and that I will hear from you again soon, I am,

Very truly yours,

Jan. 15th, 1915.

Mr. M. E. Lacy,

220 Second St., Miami, Fla.

My dear Sir:

Referring to my letters of June 2nd and 15th, 1914, this is to state that the amount of $4.00 you sent at my request to pay for the difference between the cost of transportation from Carlisle to Detroit, Minn., and from Carlisle to Miami, Fla., for the use of your daughter Susie was found to be insufficient after all because the rate on which I had based my calculation was incorrectly quoted by the local agent. In the meanwhile, however, a precedent had been established in a case similar to that of your daughter and it was finally decided that the government could be charged with the fare to Miami in lieu of the fare to Detroit.

The amount of $4.00 that was left to the credit of your daughter is now being sent to you herewith in a check made payable to Susie.

Regretting that the closing of the account has been so long delayed and hoping that you can take time to acknowledge receipt of the enclosed check, I am,

Very respectfully,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.
