Mr. McKean:

You will arrange to accompany Grover Allen to Harrisburg tomorrow morning, so that he will be placed on Pennsylvania train at 12.58 noon for Chicago. The order for his transportation is attached hereto and you will secure sufficient of Grover's funds from Mr. Miller to pay for his transportation and for your own expenses. Grover should be limited to an amount that will just be sufficient to pay for his incidental expenses enroute home.

Very respectfully,

Encl.

Mr. Edwin Minor,
Superintendent, The Kickapoo Agency,
Horton, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Minor:

I regret to report to you that Grover Allen again misconducted himself on the night of March the 25th, last, and when he was tried by a court martial he was sentenced to a term of confinement in the school guard house to be followed by expulsion. Under date of April 10th the Office approved the findings of the court and authorized me to have him placed in a State Reformatory. As such an arrangement is hardly practicable because of Grover's age it has been decided best to expel him and to send him to his home.

He will leave here this morning and transportation to Horton will be procured for his use.

Trusting that he will decide to settle down to work on his own place and that he will yet make an effort to do better than he has done here, I am,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.

SPECIAL NOTE.

This form must be executed in duplicate when a child is transferred from a reservation to a nonreservation school. The Superintendent of the nonreservation school will retain the original for his files, and the duplicate shall be deposited in the Agency records. The agent will then send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate as provided by law. All the blanks must be properly filled in every case.

If the information called for on any part of the blank is not known, that fact should be stated. No space should be left unfilled. Whether the parents are living or dead, their names must be given.

The person who signs the blank as consenting to the transfer should indicate his relation to the applicant by marking out the word "parent," "guardian," or "next of kin," leaving unmarked only the title appropriate to the signer.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case; but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations or Indian schools to nonreservation schools.

Dear Sir:

I have noted the request you conveyed to me in your letter of June the 30th, but for the reason that the amount now to your credit here is greater than that usually allowed students it would have to be sent to Superintendent Minor as a transfer of funds.

I am glad to know you are at work, and I trust that we shall hear further encouraging reports regarding you and the efforts you are making to make good use of your time.

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Minor:

I return to you herewith the bill that was referred to you in the first instance by Grover Allen, and which you forwarded to me for my information with your favor of March the 5th.

In reply to your letter I have to advise that Grover has sufficient money to his credit in our school bank to buy all the clothes he needs. However, he has not been allowed to draw any large amounts because he generally uses his funds injudiciously and to buy liquor.

Under date of December 10th, last, an amount of $25.00 was turned over to him. When he became intoxicated $19.00 was taken away from him and was then turned over to him in installments of $6.00 and $13.00, respectively.
