Philadelphia—Chestnut Street east of 6th Street. A glimpse of the district wherein a number of the large financial and banking concerns are centered. The facade of the Old State House shown to the right of the picture is no less imposing than the towering heights of the modern office buildings surrounding. In Colonial days this section was the very heart of the city. To-day it is yet the greatest centre of interest and activity while the march of progress has carried the centre of the city and its population considerably further west from this historic point.

Mr. Marcos Carbajal,

870 No. 7th St., Philadelphia.

My dear Friend:

The request contained in your letter of August the 14th is being referred to the Office at Washington, and just as soon as consideration is given it and I am advised what action I may take in your behalf I will write you again.

I believe that the Office will authorize me to comply with your request, but it is not likely that the matter can be definitely arranged by the 1st of September.

The letter from Mr. Hawley you submitted for my information is being returned to you herewith, and it is my suggestion that you bring the matter to the attention of your Superintendent so that your Aunt's and your own interests may be protected, pending the time you can return home to give the same your personal attention.

Very truly yours,

Encl.

Dear Mr. Lipp:

Your letter and receipt for money sent to the school is received.

No doubt you remember that when I came away from the school in May, we talked over the probabilities of my getting my transportation paid home in the fall, and I would like to know if you could arrange to have it ready by September. I was thinking of staying out here in the east for a while, and for that reason I came to the city to see if I could locate myself out here before the fall of the year, but I have received a couple of letters from home stating that they are having land troubles. My father has been forced to sell all his property in the last two years that I have been away. Enclosed you will find a letter that I received a few days ago from a real estate man, as you will see for yourself. He says he wants to clear my aunt's title to a tract of land, and wants me to sign a quit claim deed, but I know that some one else wants to have a clear road to the land, besides my aunt.

I know and I am pretty sure that my Aunt has no title to the land at all. So in order to see about the affair myself, I have decided to go home and attend to it myself, and I am writing to see if I can have my ticket ready by September. If I need to go there myself to obtain the ticket let me know. Any thing that you ~~can~~ do towards obtaining my ticket will greatly appreciated. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Marcos Barbafal.

Miss Moore:

When your recommendation regarding Marcos Carbajal was received by Mr. Friedman he informed me that the request for an examination for him had gone in some time ago. I also learned that the request had been forwarded to the Commission by the Indian Office.

Today, Miss Hampton informed me that the matter had been rushed thru and that if the examination papers reach her in time she can conduct the examination for Marcos at the same time she has assigned for Lewis.

Will you, therefore, please have Marcos give the enclosed blank his attention today?

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

I am employed here at this school (Mescalero Indian School) and some of the boys here have asked me to write to you, to see if they could be admitted to your school. They are very nice boys, and two of them have gone as far as this school would allow them to go which is the fourth grade. If you desire to have them enter the Carlisle School, I can get four (4) good boys that I think are ambitious young fellows. The boys that are here on their vacation
