INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employe of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Sir:

I received a letter from my daughter Clara informing that she has written you and requested you to send the amount of her lost annuity money to me. On her departure she contracted for an account at one of the stores in Shawano for which I paid, and some time ago she asked me for shoes and other necessaries which I sent her, this was on or about July 1st 1911.

If such arrangements as above stated ^{can be made} will be appreciated by me and Mrs as I am very much in need of money. Clara tells me that she will not need this money and it will be used for a good purpose by me. Hoping this will receive a favorable consideration by you I am

My dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your favor of July the 18th, with which you transmitted an amount of $30.00 to be used to defray the expenses that will be incurred by your daughter Clara in taking a trip home.

Due credit has been given her for the amount and at her request it is being arranged so that she can leave here on Monday evening of next week. Transportation beyond Shawano cannot be procured for her use and you may expect her to arrive there shortly after midnight on Tuesday evening, August the 4th.

I would thank you to let me hear from you when the girl has arrived at your home.

Sept. 2nd, 1914.

Mr. George Irving,
Neopit, Wisconsin.

My dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of recent date, this is to advise that when your daughter Clara was given permission to go to her home an amount of $45.69 was placed on deposit by her. She was given $2.69 in cash to pay for her incidental expenses enroute home and $20.74 of the amount was used to pay for the transportation that was procured for her passage from Carlisle to Shawano. The balance of $22.26 is covered by check No. 17 herewith.

This amount of $22.26 was to be retained here to pay for Clara's return transportation to Carlisle, but it has lately been reported to me that she did not make the best use of her time last year, that she was indifferent and careless and that special attention had to be given to her to keep her in line with the established rules and regulations. Under the circumstances it is believed best that Clara should continue with her education elsewhere, unless she can make up her mind that she wants to return to Carlisle to make the best possible use of her time.

If you decide to have her enroll at another school I will be pleased to do what I can to co-operate with you in getting her enrolment effected.

Mr. Miller,
Carlisle, Pa,

My dear Sir:-

It gives me
great pleasure to write you a few lines in order to ask you a few questions about my daughter's money.

I shall to begin with
I must admit that I sent * my daughter
clear driving, $7000
and this was the last part ^{a year ago} of last may in 1912. And in asking my daughter Clara about this she told me she didn't see half of it

so therefore would you kindly look this matter
over and send me
her Bank accounts
if possible. and another thing Dr. Rickleson
told my wife that it would only take $3000 for my daughter ^{to} ~~or~~ come home on. he said it would $15⁰⁰ one way so therefore in adding the account

it makes altogether $30.00 so there must be some great mistake,

I'll close trusting
you will grant my request.

I am yours truly
