Mr. George Marks,
York, Pennsylvania.

Dear friend George:

Complying with the request contained in your letter of April the 23rd, this is to state that Mr. Dagenett writes his name Chas. E. and that he has his office at the Indian Office in the Pension Building. I do not know where he could be reached on a Sunday when he is not at his office.

I am pleased to know you have secured work and that you are making such good use of your spare time. Not only are you acquiring additional knowledge by such extra work, but it is the very best recommendation that could be brought to the attention of your employers. I hope it will bring you promotions in the near future.

Assuring you of my continued interest in your welfare and that my best wishes are with you, I remain,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Supervisor in Charge.

C. H. Lipps,
Carlisle, Pa..

My Dear Mr. Lipps:

Please send me the address of Mr. Daganette of Washington, D. C.. I may go to Washington on a Sunday excursion in the near future. It would give me great pleasure to have a short talk with him if I could be fortunate enough to make an appointment with him at such a day.

I am still taking typewriting with the York Business College of this place. During the day, I am working at the York Mfg. Co.. And my evenings and holidays are really fully occupied by night school work and by reading, study, and scribbling (some may call it writing).

I wish I had more time to say what I want to say but it seems that I have so much to do and so little time. It may be that I shall be able to write more some other time.

I thank you in advance for Mr. Daganette's address.

Respectfully yours,

George Marks

Dr. M. Friedman,

Carlisle, Pa.,

Dear Sir:

There are a few men in the higher walks of the world's work, whose sound opinions along their special line of work are to be relied upon. I take it for granted that you are one of these men, whose sound judgement can be trusted. So it is quite natural for me to come to you for advice when I am virtually at sea in choosing my life work.

Even the brightest and most ambitious young men may at times be doubtful as to their life work. They may be undecided at first as to what line of work to follow. And it appears to me that this matter of choosing a life career is all the more difficult for a person like myself.

Although I may be brighter and more ambitious and more energetic than the average young men of my race, yet the fact that I belong to the Indian race makes me feel uneasy on entering any line of work that requires lot of preparatory study and lot of brain power. Even if I am intensely interested in science and in mathematics, yet I am not sure that I would succeed in the scientific world because I am an Indian.

Knowing that you are more or less acquainted with the work already attempted or accomplished by the Indians along this line of world's achievement, I would very much like to have your unbiased and impartial opinion on this subject.

Very truly yours,

George Marks.
