Mr. F. S. Everest,
Superintendent, La Pointe Agency,
Ashland, Wis.

My dear Mr. Everest:

Acknowledging receipt of your favor of August the 16th, I will add that the balance of the thirty five dollar check you enclosed therewith not required to pay for Joe Wilson's transportation will be handed to him to pay for his incidental traveling expenses enroute home. It has been arranged, at Joe's request, so that he can leave here tomorrow evening and transportation to Odanah will be procured for his use.

In this connection I will report that Joe has made a conscientious effort to stick to business since the date I had the last talk with him in my office some time ago. He knows how to do what is right and I trust that in some way he can yet be made to see the importance of being more manly than he had been here previous to his latest attempt to do better.

Thanking you for your co-operation, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Re. return to

Wilson, Junior.

La Pointe Indian Agency, Wisconsin,
Ashland, August 18, 1914.

Sup't. O. H. Lipps,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

Having in mind your recent letter addressed to Joseph Wilson, an Indian of this Reservation, concerning his son Joseph Junior now a pupil in your school, I saw the father today and talked with him in regard to his boy.

He seemed to be of the same opinion as was expressed by you in your letter, that the boy probably didn't have the material in him to make good with and that his further schooling at Carlisle would probably be of very little future benefit to him.

Being acquainted with the boy myself, I am quite in sympathy with the views expressed in your letter of recent date addressed to Joseph Wilson, Sr.

The father therefore concludes that it would be just as well for the boy to return home. With this end in view, I am enclosing with this letter check for $35 drawn from the boy's bank account duly countersigned by me which will become negotiable as soon as he attaches his signature as drawer of the check.

I think the enclosed remittance will be fully enough to secure his transportation home and furnish him with meals etc. en route.

Respectfully,

Sup't. & Spec. Disb. Agent.

August 3rd, 1914.

Mr. Joe Wilson,
Odanah, Wisconsin.

My dear Sir:

I regret very much to report to you that your son Joe has made a very poor record here since he came to Carlisle last year. Only recently he made an attempt to break into the Girls' Quarters at this school.

I had another talk with him this morning, and I told him that one more chance will be given him to make good use of his time, but that at the first attempt to continue with his misdeeds the charge now against him will be presented to the proper authorities and that he will then have to stand trial in the local Courts with a possibility that he would then be sentenced to the penitentiary.

All efforts to help Joe have thus far been in vain. He was given an opportunity to take up the trade of blacksmithing and was told that he could continue in the shop as long as he desired to work there if he would stick to business. He lasted less than three days. Later on when he was assisting with the work at the Quarters he was found hidden away between two mattresses and almost suffocated. That was his choice in preference to work. Similar actions could be reported in a number of other instances.

I have Joe's promise that he will "brace up" and that he will try to do something that is worth while, but in the meanwhile I would be pleased to hear whether you ever succeeded in keeping him at work while he was at home and whether there would be any possibility of his settling down to earnest endeavor if he should be sent home. Would you send the amount required to pay for his transportation if it should be decided to release him from this school?

I trust I can make you a more favorable report soon regarding your son.

Very truly yours,

HJK.

July 18, 1914.

Mr. O. H. Lipps, Supervisor in Charge.

Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Sir:

I have the honor to submit the following report, relative to the conduct of Joe Wilson, a student in the above school.

He was enrolled Sept 21, 1912, ran May 28, 1913, returned and ran again Sept 25, 1913; returned November 17, 1913, ran Jan 26, 1914; brought back Jan 30, 1914; ran March 15 th, 1914, returned July 6th, 1914, placed in the guard house, released July 13 th, with promises of doing better. On July 15, 1914, he sneaked out of the quarters after 9 P.M. inspection, got drunk and proceeded to break into the Girls<sup>1</sup> Quarters, by tearing the screens from the windows on the first floor. He removed one and finding that he could not gain an entrance to the main part of the building, was trying to remove the other, when he was taken into custody by the two night watchmen employed at the School about 1:25 A.M.

July 16th, and placed in the Guard House and is still confined there at present date.

This boy seems to have no respect for school life or his fellow students, he will neither work or study. I consider a student like him a menace to the discipline of the school, and respectfully request that he be expelled as soon as possible.

Very respectfully,

Louis Hathaway

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of December the 2nd, in regard to the assistance that was given by your office in accomplishing the return to Carlisle of Joseph Wilson, Jr., this is to advise that the young man was enrolled on November the 17th to complete the term of enrolment for which he was originally received in September of 1912, and of which he had been in attendance but eight months when he deserted.

Thanking you for your kind co-operation, I am,

Sup't. M. Friedman,

Dear Mr. Friedman:

A short time ago this office furnished Joseph Wilson, Junior, sufficient funds with which to purchase transportation from Odanah to your school.

It was his wish to return to Carlisle the coming term and I granted his request.

The young man was not doing any good loafing around here and I thought he would be better off in school. I understand he formerly attended Carlisle and it was his wish to return.

Kindly advise me as to whether he has enrolled at your school.

Respectfully,

Sup't. & Spec. Disb. Agent.

Dear Sir:

The grandfather of Joseph Wilson, a pupil at your school, called upon me today and stated that he recently sent Joseph a letter addressed to him at Carlisle, Pa., enclosing one dollar for spending money for the boy.

The letter was returned unclaimed and the grandfather is wondering if the boy is still in school or not. The letter had been opened and marked "Return to the sender".

I think the young man deserted school something like a year ago and the grandfather is anxious to know whether he has repeated that this year or whether he is still at Carlisle.

Will you not kindly advise me in the matter?

My dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August the 12th and to advise that the unfavorable report contained therein regarding your son Joe's past unsatisfactory record has been noted.

It is to be regretted that he has not made any attempt to make good use of his time and I agree with you that very little can evidently be done for him here. I have learned from the agent in charge of the local ticket office that an amount of $24.50 will be required to pay for his transportation to Odarah, and it will be well to add to that a sufficient amount to be given to Joe for his incidental traveling expenses enroute home.

Dear Sir:-

I received your letter telling me about my son what a bad record he's got and I am very sorry to hear of it. He never did take any interest in going to school but I heard so much of that school I thought he would like it. Because there were so many students reformed from that school, and now I guess I cant do any more with <sup>him</sup> but try and keep him at home in which I would like to have him come next month, I will try and get

so he can come home,

Please let me know how much the fare will be hoping to hear from you soon.
