INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Mr. Joe Foreman, Locust Grove, Oklahoma.

My dear Sir:

I must inform you that your son Osceola is now in the Cumberland County jail in Carlisle with two other boys from this school serving a sentence of a ten dollar fine for trespassing on a neighbor's property, breaking down his apple trees and stealing his fruit.

The costs in the case amount to $6.14, and it is the Law in Pennsylvania that an additional sixty day period must be served in jail if the costs are not paid in cash. Will you please have such an amount sent to me if you desire to have your son's punishment lightened to such an extent?

You are also informed that he will have to be dismissed from this school when he is released from jail and that the amount required to pay for his return transportation should be placed on deposit with me. Please let me hear from you without delay.

Very truly yours,

Superintendent:—

Dear Sir,

I'll write you a few words concerning my son, Ocala Foxman, that's there in school. I don't think he'll do any good there, he is so dissatisfied, every letter I get his begging to come home, and says he worries every day, and prays to come home. I am getting old, and he is my baby child, it worries me so that I am hardly able to let up, his Father didn't force him to go there, he had two cousins going there and he wanted to go because they were.

I didn't want him to go
so far away from home.
I didn't think he'd be satisfied, for he never was away from home a week.

Write me at once if you are willing for him to come home and I'll wire him a ticket.

sincerely yours,
Mrs. Rachel Forman.

Mr. Joe. Forman,

R. F. D. 1, Locust Grove, Okla.

My dear Sir:

Upon receipt of your favor of the 19th instant I again had inquiry made about your son and learned that he has been taken out of our guard-house and that he is now at work. He has evidently made up his mind to settle down to something definite and I hope he will notify you soon that he is better satisfied and that he will make an effort to profit by the opportunities he has here.

Oceola and another boy refused to do any work or go to school and finally went to Harrisburg and got drunk there. Upon their return to school they were locked up.

As he is now showing a disposition to make good use of his time it is my belief that he should be allowed to remain here to prove that he is in earnest. If, at a later date, he wastes more time I shall not object to his leaving.

Very truly yours,

HKM.
