I have noted the request contained in your letter of January the 19th, but for the reason that your period of enrolment does not terminate until the close of school in June it will not be advisable to let you go to your home before that time.

Your brother George was given permission to go home because his conduct had not been satisfactory for some time past.

Very truly yours,

My dear Sir:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the kind assistance you gave Christopher Young during the time he was in San Francisco and for completing the arrangements whereby he could sail without delay for Eureka.

I have received a bill for his accomodation at the Hotel Commodore and it will be given attention at our earliest convenience. Similar attention will be given the North Pacific Company's bill when it is submitted to me for consideration.

Assuring you that it is a satisfaction to know where we may apply for assistance when any of our young people require special help, I am,

Very respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Your letter of June 3d relative to the young man Christopher Young will say that he arrived here, and on account of the change of sailing he was compelled to stay over two nights here at a Hotel, and you will receive a bill for his maintenance from the proprietor of same. Just missing our sailing and instead of keeping three days longer here I had the North Pacific Co furnish him with a ticket to Eureka on their steamer, which sails tomorrow, and you will receive a bill from them for the same.

Hoping that this is satisfactory, I am

My Friend,

I have your card of the 3rd requesting the money to your credit here. I note that you have 139.14 to your credit, quite a nice sum considering the fact that you earned and saved every cent of it under the outing. While it is not customary to turn over sums like this all at once, I am enclosing herewith check for the amount and would suggest that you start a bank account with this check and make it grow.

Dear Friend:

Mr. Denny has handed me your letter for an answer. We are glad to hear from you and to know that you seem to be getting along alright. Your request for a Carlisle sweater has been handed to Mrs. Robitaille the Alumni Secretary who has the sale of these sweaters in hand now. She is away from the school just now but will give it her attention as soon as she comes back. If you will drop her a card right away telling her the size, you will get your sweater sooner. I think they are worth $6.00 now.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing herewith a check for the amount of $2.67 which is to balance your account on the books of this school. As this is not a large amount, the bank will probably want to charge you a small amount for its collection. I would advise you to sign and endorse the check and return it to me, and I shall be glad to mail either money or postage covering same.

I am enclosing herewith a franked envelope for reply which requires no postage, and will thank you to give this matter your early attention.
