INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, that hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case.

This form is to be used only in transfers from reservations, or Indian schools, to nonreservation schools.

Dear Sir:-

I wish to thank you for the safe arrival of my son. His mother & sister & myself were made happy by his return home.

At one time I had a daughter attending the Genoa Gov't School. She took sick & instead of allowing her to come home as you have let the boy come, they kept her there until she died there. It was such a bitter experience that we appreciate your kindness in this instance.

I am an Indian who cannot read or write and I was desirous that my children should be educated and sent them to school but their health seems to be against my plans.

My other son, George Robinson, is still with you. Please keep a strict watch on him as he has threatened to run away and come home. I wanted to have him come home for the vacation season but I cannot get the money.

Very respectfully,

Thomas Robinson

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly tell George Robinson that the check for $20.00 in favor of C.R. Tyndale which he signed recently was to pay for clothing he purchased when he was preparing to enter Carlisle. An order was given by this office, but before the order was returned for payment our authorities lapsed. We secured authority to make payment. I believe with a little effort on George's part he will recall the transaction.

Respectfully,

Mr. Axel Johnson,
Superintendent, The Omaha Agency,

My dear Sir:

Replying to your letter in regard to the return to Carlisle of George Robinson, this is to advise that after making inquiry about the boy's former record at this school I have concluded that it will be advisable to give some other boy a chance in his place because he did not make an effort to profit by the opportunities he had here.

Hoping, however, that George has profited by his experiences since he deserted from Carlisle and that he will settle down to something worth while, I am,

Very truly yours,

HKM.
