INDORSEMENTS.

---

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case, but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.

Mr. J. R. Wise,
Superintendent, Haskell Institute,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Wise:

James Hamilton, who is mentioned in your favor of the 29th ultimo, was enrolled at Carlisle on September the 20th of 1913. On June the 9th of 1914 permission was given him to return home for the vacation months. He did not return here to complete his period of enrolment.

I shall not object at all to his remaining at the Haskell Institute if it can be believed that he is sincere in his desire to have an opportunity to continue with his education and you will consent to give him a chance. While at Carlisle he was too indifferent to profit by what could be given him to do and he may now realize how important it is that he take advantage without any more delay of the opportunity he has to get an education.

Very truly yours,

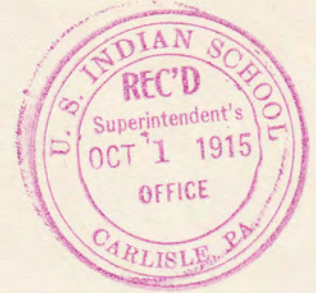

HEM.

Superintendent.

Superintendent O. H. Lipps,
Indian School,
Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Lipps:

During June James Hamilton, of Macy, Nebraska, visited at Haskell and talked a little about wanting to enroll here but made no application and returned to his home. Last week Superintendent Johnson, of the Omaha Agency, furnished this young man a ticket to Lawrence on the assumption that he had enrolled at Haskell. We do not have any enrollment papers for him and have not accepted him. However, he is here and we must determine his status. I think that he belongs properly to your school, having left there in 1914 for vacation after serving but one year. We have taken him in temporarily but in view of the regulations we would prefer that if arrangements can be made that he return to Carlisle and finish his enrollment there. This, he seems willing to do. I am today writing Superintendent Johnson in respect to this matter and if he has funds available for returning to Carlisle will you accept him?

Very respectfully,

Superintendent Axel Johnson,
Omaha Indian School,
Macy, Nebraska.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

James Hamilton arrived on the 25th. Evidently there was some misunderstanding about his having enrolled here last June. He talked with us about enrolling but stated that he did not wish to go to school but preferred to work at a trade all day. He was informed that we would not accept pupils on that basis and went away without enrolling. Since he is here I have taken him in temporarily and am writing to Mr. Lipps today, carbon copy of which letter is enclosed. Please advise me whether he has funds to return to Carlisle, if it is the desire of the Superintendent there.

Very respectfully,

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Referring to the portion of your letter dated the 9th instant regarding James Hamilton, you are advised that he was in to see me Saturday and declared his intention then to return to Carlisle. He stated that he expected some of his people to send him the necessary funds. From the letter of Supt. Lipps, a copy of which was sent to you, I am not sure that the return of the young man to Carlisle is especially desired. I am at a loss to know what to advise. He may yet decide to settle down here and make good. If he does not, my feeling is that he should return to his home.

Very respectfully,

(Signed J. R. Wise.)
